

December 12, 2023 | Press Release

Leading Economic Damages and Business Valuation Expert Joins Floyd Advisory's Expert Panel

Floyd Advisory is pleased to announce that Lisa Snow will be working with the firm on select matters as an expert advisor. Ms. Snow has over 25 years of experience providing strategic advice to corporate clients and their legal counsel in litigation, arbitration, as well as on corporate, board and regulatory investigation matters. Ms. Snow provides expert advice, expert witness testimony, financial valuation, financial damages and accounting analysis in complex commercial disputes and investigations. She holds degrees from the University of Vermont, Washington University in St. Louis, as well as the University of Chicago's Booth School of Business. As an expert advisor, Ms. Snow will be available to serve our clients' forensic accounting and business valuation expert needs.

Floyd Advisory LLC is a consulting firm providing financial and accounting expertise in areas of SEC reporting, transaction advisory, investigations and compliance, litigation services, as well as business strategy and valuation.

